MURDER AND SUICIDE

A Wealthy Resident of Albany
Shoots His Wife
AND THEN ENDS HIS OWN EXISTENCE.

The Tragedy the Result of Long-Continued but Futile Efforts to Get Rid of the Mother of His Four Children.

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 8.—Chas. S. Quackenbush, a wealthy resident of Albany, N. Y., shot his wife in the head about 8 o'clock last night, and then killed himself. He had attempted to kill his wife several times, and about a month ago was only restrained from carrying out his purpose by a policeman. Three weeks ago he tried to shoot her again. Last night he returned from Mount Pleasant, Conn., and went to the house where his wife was living at 154 Warren street. He went to the kitchen from the hall and saw his wife Annie in the next room preparing their three little girls, ranging in age from 2 to 5 years, for bed. Some hot words were exchanged and Quackenbush pulled a revolver from his pocket and shot his wife in the back of the head near the car. She had turned to run from him. He then went into the kitchen and shot twice more at her. He then placed the revolver to the roof of his mouth and fired, the bullet going through his brain and lodging in the ceiling. Quackenbush took his oldest child, a girl of 7 years, to Montreal two weeks ago.

On December 20, he wrote to his wife telling her to send the rest of the children and their clothes to him. This letter read as follows:

Amy—Send my clothes and Maggie's; her suit and my gloves, cap and shoes and everything you own, except the children. If you come you will know the result. F. S. Quackenbush.

The next day the wife received a telegram, reading:

Send clothes for Maggie and myself by boy; also three children. You stay there. Reply. C. S. Q.

It is probable that as he did not receive any reply to his message he came to see about it. The only person at the house at the time of the shooting was a Mrs. Gould. She heard three shots and heard a heavy fall, but was afraid to see what was the matter.

Mr. Gould returned a few minutes after the shooting and began an investigation. He found Mrs. Quackenbush lying on the floor, groaning, while the three children were huddled together in a corner, crying.

The police were notified and were soon upon the scene. Quackenbush was found lying in a pool of blood by the kitchen table. His wife was taken to St. Michael's hospital in an ambulance. There he died without regaining consciousness. He had entered the hall way when she died, and could not make any statement in regard to the shooting.

Quackenbush had about $40,000 in securities on his person and $750 in cash. He fell heir to a large estate in this city by the death of his father a few months ago, and since then has been trying to get rid of his wife. At Albany Quackenbush repeatedly tried to kill his wife.

THE VIRGINIA CYCLONE.

Several Deaths and Numerous Injuries. ROANOKE, Va., Jan. 8.—Additional details received concerning the cyclone in Randolph and Chambers counties Wednesday night are:

Where the house of James Williams was blown down while a dance was in progress and three men were killed and five women badly hurt. Other occupants were slightly injured.

The path of the storm was about 100 yards wide. It swept down the Savannah and Western railroad track for 2 miles, racing with a passenger train which narrowly escaped destruction.

At Milltown nearly every store was blown down, together with the Baptist church, college and many residences. Prof. Gibson, of the college, was killed and twelve pupils hurt. No less than thirty people were more or less injured at Milltown.

The miles further on three negro cabins were taken up by the cyclone and carried about a half mile and three children were killed. The storm laid timber, houses and fences low in its path. The full extent of the damage done and the number of fatalities are not yet known.

Assets of the Defunct Maverick National Bank. BOSTON, Jan. 8.—The cash collections of the Maverick national bank, deposited with the Federal Reserve Bank, treasurer for the benefit of creditors amount to $1,189,323, or 88.8 per cent of the known deposits at the time of the suspension.

AN AWFUL CALAMITY

A Terrible Explosion in a Crowded Coal Mine.

FOUR HUNDRED LIVES IMPERILED, Of Whom Only One Hundred and Fifty Escape Injury—The Others Killed or Injured—The Usual Heart-rending Scenes.

SOUTH McATESTER, I. T., Jan. 8.—The horrors of the Diamond disaster at Bradwood, Ill., about eight years ago, was re-enacted here last night, and today, except that in this instance, fire instead of flood was the instrument of destruction. As the miners were preparing to leave shift No. 11 at 6 miles from here, operated by the Osage Coal and Mining Co., shortly after 5 o'clock last evening, a terrific explosion occurred spreading death among the 400 or more miners at work. It is impossible at present to obtain any accurate information as to the number of the dead or persons injured, but it is known that at least 100 men are entombed in the mine, and it is only possible to ascertain their number by a canvass from house to house, which is being made by a committee appointed for the purpose. It is generally conceded that the dead will number close to 100, and the injured about as many, a great number of whom have no prospect of recovery.

Physicians of the neighboring towns and cities have tendered their services and are working to their utmost in caring for the injured. Miners from neighboring towns have been called in to help in the work of the day and night, tending their assistance and heroically volunteering to enter the gloomy shaft in which so many of their comrades are entombed. They have been sent down to the bottom of the mine, where they are working to clear the debris and to rescue the living.

The explosion occurred in the lower part of the mine, and the shock of the explosion fell upon a timber frame, and which a breath of air carried to the surface. The explosion was heard for miles around, and the shock of the explosion was felt for miles around.

FROM OVER THE SEAS

Evidence That the New Khedive Has an Anti-English Bias.

MUST RETIRE FROM POLITICAL LIFE.

Again Remanded—The Captured American War Ship President—Commendable Clemency—Lincoln and Salisbury, Etc., Etc.

Evidence That the New Khedive Has an Anti-English Bias. LONDON, Jan. 8.—More or less worry is being exhibited over alleged evidence that young Prince Abbas has the heir to the throne of the khedivate has a bias against things English. It is said that the new ruler will probably cause more or less annoyance to the British bondholders, and others interested in preserving the status quo until he is tamed down by the persuasive methods which England has hitherto employed so successfully with his predecessors, Ismail and Towfik. The khedive's death aroused very slight interest in Europe. It will have a decided effect in France, it is feared, in the way of stimulating French and Russian intrigues at Constantinople. Great Britain will be compelled to exercise increased vigilance in the east, and the successor of the late Sir William Whitaker, as British ambassador to Turkey, will probably be the very best man that can be selected among the diplomatic experts of England.

Must Retire from Political Life. LONDON, Jan. 8.—When Capt. No. 10's second petition for divorce from the Lady Blaine, sister of the Earl of Arisa, was brought before the Edinburgh court, one of the conditions of the settlement, then effected was that Sir William Whitaker, the co-respondent in the case, should retire from parliament or rather not propose himself for re-election at the next general election. He agreed to this, but he is now disposed to free himself from that obligation and is seeking the influence of a distinguished family, and because he is the third member of parliament to sink out of political life through disgrace in the courts during the past two months.

The Proposal to Return the Captured American War Ship President. LONDON, Jan. 8.—A high official of the admiralty, in an interview yesterday, was asked by a reporter of the United Press how the proposal to return the United States man-of-war President, captured by the British in 1814, was received in naval circles, and by the people generally in England. He replied that the proposal had been received with approval by the army and navy, and that the government was prepared to accept it. He said that the government was prepared to accept it.

Commendable Clemency. CALCUTTA, Jan. 8.—The sentences of the female convicts who, November 5, rescued a number of male convicts who were swept into the surf, clinging to an overturned wooden building, have been remitted or greatly lightened. The act of heroism was performed during the great cyclone.

Lincoln and Salisbury. LONDON, Jan. 8.—Minister Lincoln had a rather long interview yesterday afternoon with Lord Salisbury. The subject is understood to have been the Behring sea question.

A Village Submerged. BERN, Jan. 8.—An unusually high tide in the North sea yesterday caused the breaking of a dyke near Geestmunde, whereby the village of Schiffdorf was submerged.

Died from Influenza. LONDON, Jan. 8.—George Fowler, head of a Liverpool provision firm engaged in the packing business in Kansas, has died from influenza.

A GRAIN OF SENSE. There used to be a prejudice in the minds of some of the people against taking patent medicines, but this has now been happily done away with, because people find that a patent medicine carefully put up in quantity is more apt to be the remedy for the malady, than when they are given a prescription hastily written by a physician who is worked nearly to death, and then filled by a sleepy clerk at the prescription desk. A medicine like Reid's German Cough and Kindy Cure contains no poison or opiates, and can be relied upon to help the case which in claims to be able to treat. The success that has attended it is marvellous on this account, and no one need be afraid to take it, for it contains no poison, and is free from opiates. If your local druggist don't have it on his shelf, tell him he can get it of any wholesale dealer.

W. F. NATHAN, the druggist, gives ten reasons why Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best.

It will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment.

It does not oppress a cough or cold, but loosens and relieves it.

It relieves the lungs, which is of great importance in treating a cold.

It is the only remedy that will cure the expansion of mucus from the air cells of the lungs.

It renders the mucus less tenacious
and easier to expectorate.

It cures the cough as soon as the first symptoms appear, it will cure a severe cold in a single day.

It will prevent croup and avert all danger and anxiety arising from that dreadful disease.

It has cured thousands of cases of croup, and careful inquiry fails to discover a single case in which it has ever failed.

It does not contain opium, chloroform, nor any other injurious substance.
There is not the least danger in giving it
to children.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts in perfect harmony with nature, and while nature is relieving the lungs, and freeing the system of morbid matter, accumulated by cause of the cold. 50 cents

The Tusculum Review of this week says: John Chandler of Decatur, was in the city a few days last week. Mr. Chandler owns a fine farm one mile east of Tusculum, where the L. D. and W. and G. & E. L. railroads converge to the east and north-east, forming a wedge-shaped piece of land, some 12 or 15 acres in extent. This land, Mr. Chandler says, he will donate to parties who will sink a coal shaft, and operate a mine, and further than this, he will take stock in the project himself.

Experiment on the Illinois Central the past few weeks shows that the hauling of 1,900 ton train, including dead weight and cargo, requires three and one-half barrels of water a mile, or a gross ton of water every two and one-half miles, and a ton of coal every seven miles. The locomotive was a Rogers, weighing with tender seventy tons, and the speed
